EDITION 381 – TUESDAY, 08 AUGUST 2023

CLUB RECIPIENT OF LANE COVE COUNCIL COMMUNITY GRANT

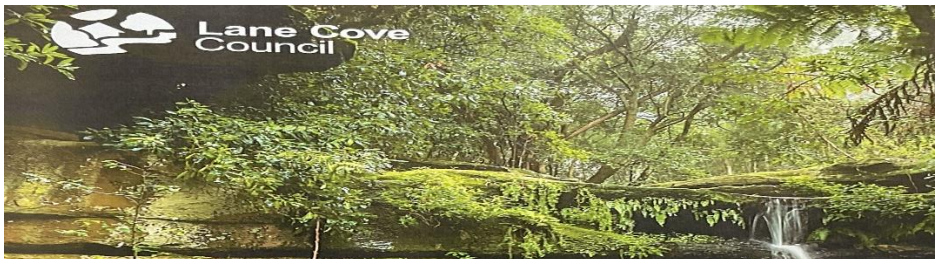

Last Wednesday (2nd August 2023) Mayor Andrew Zbik, presented $458,898 in grants to 12 organisations at their annual presentation event. Your Club was one of these 12 organizations.

Mayor Andrew Zbik said “Lane Cove has numerous community groups that committed volunteers often support. The programs and ideas they foster are an important part of what makes Lane Cove a thriving, livable community, and one with a heart.”

“Supporting the activities of community groups that cater for all ages, and many different interests is central to the social purpose of Council. From a kindergarten to retirement units, to musical and artistic groups, these grants support activities that most residents can benefit from.

The grants are cash grants, and in some cases in kind support such as fees and charges waivers, depending on the circumstances and applications of the recipients.

Chairman, Bevan Piper, thanked Councillor Mort for the Council’s grant of $7,373.80 in the form of a 50% waiver against Council Rates. He stressed the Club’s vital role in support of community groups across a wide range of age groups and activities such as Marilyn’s Tuesday group, Roll Back the Clock as well as the importance of sporting activity for the mental and physical wellbeing of older members of our community.

MAJOR SINGLES WRAP

Winning only two of the first 12 ends Mark Burrough looked to be in deep trouble against his opponent Phil Wade in their 2nd round clash last Saturday. At this juncture Phil held a sizable lead of 11 points to Mark's 3 points, however, to his credit Mark held Phil to 1 point on all but one of the end's Phil won.

Over the next 12 ends Mark won 7 ends adding 9 points to Phil's 5 ends and 6 points. From thereon it was "all Mark", in an impressive display of draw bowls, as he won 10 of the last 12 ends to Phil's 20 points for a well deserved win.

This was a marathon match as rarely in the old format of 31 up did matches last for 36 ends. Remarkably, 27 ends of the 36 ends played were singles demonstrating the closeness of the match!

Mark meets Peter Zucconi in the 4th quarter final.

Statistics:

Player	Mark Burrough	Phil Wade
Points	27	20
Ends	19	17
1 point end	13	14
2-point end	4	3
3-point end	2	-

On the comeback trail Simon Creedy (nine time winner of this event) matched bowls with Minor Singles champion of 2021 Kevin Mulhall.

Before you could say Jack Robinson Kevin rolled away to lead 16 points to Simon's 1 point after 7 ends.

Simon then won 3 consecutive ends only for Kevin to roll in 4 shots on end 11 for a 14 point lead and in the next 3 ends added 5 shots to Simon's single for a 25 points to 7 points win.

Kevin will play Greg Moon in the 2nd quarter final.

Statistics:

Player	Kevin Mulhall	Simon Creedy
Points	25	7
Ends	9	5
1 point end	-	4
2-point end	5	-
3-point end	1	1
4-point end	3	-

BEER PRICES TO INCREASE

From 1st August, the cost of draught, as well as packaged beer, increased significantly, with the cost increases averaging 3.8% (including tax excise on alcohol increasing by 2.2%) which comes on top of a 5.75% wage increase on 1st July.

The excise tax is indexed twice yearly in line with the consumer price index (CPI).

The current taxes mean Australians pay more in beer tax than every other nation, save for Japan, Finland and Norway.

Club prices will rise on Monday 14th August 2023:

	Draught beer	Schooner	Middy	Jug
	Victoria Bitter	$7.90	5.50	22.50
	Carlton Dry	$7.90	5.50	22.50
	Reschs	$7.90	5.50	22.50
	Great Northern	$7.60	5.30	21.50

AUSSIE DESTINATIONS – Cassilis, NSW

Historic village famed for the beautiful The Drip

Cassilis is a small, historic village lying between Merriwa and Dunedoo. It spreads out on land beside the Munmurra River and is now little more than a few residences, a hotel, two churches and a sandstone Police Station. The main appeal of the area is the beautiful feature known rather unromantically as "The Drip" where clear spring water breaks through a sandstone cliff and "drips" into the Goulburn River.

Location

Cassilis is located 351 km north-west from Sydney either via the Blue Mountains and Mudgee or via the M1 and Merriwa.

Origin of Name

It is believed that Cassilis takes its name from a small village in Scotland. In the 1830s it was a private village named Dalkeith which served the Cassilis and Dalkeith stations. The former property was granted to Alexander Busby in 1835 and the latter to Donald McIntyre in 1834. It is claimed that Alexander Busby's wife was the daughter of the Earl of Cassilis in Scotland. The village became a stopover for coaches bound west from Muswellbrook. It was gazetted as a town and named Cassilis in 1869.

Heritage Buildings

The village is spread out with the church on one side of the Munmurra River and the Court House, Police Station and Royal Hotel stretched along Branksome Street which winds and becomes Buccleugh Street.

St Columba's Anglican Church

St Columba's Anglican Church, also known as the Anglican Church of St Columba of Iona was built of sandstone in 1899. It replaced a timber church which had been built on the site in 1864 and which operated as both a church and a school. It was sited on the land granted to Alexander Busby in 1835. Today it is located in the Cassilis War Memorial Park near the Cassilis Bowling Club.

Doctor's Residence

One of the few elegant buildings in the village - is an attractive timber house dating from the late 19th century when it was the residence of the local doctor.

St Joseph's Catholic Church

Joseph's Catholic Church, a simple timber structure which was built in 1894 and which is set back from the road.

Police Station and Official Residence

The modest Court House which was designed by Alexander Dawson and built of sandstone in 1858. The police residence, designed by Walter Vernon, the Government Architect, dates from 1891.

Royal Hotel

The Royal Hotel was built of sandstone in 1869. It is still a prominent landmark in the town.

Other Attractions in the Area

Hands on the Rock

Located 10 km south-west of Cassilis, are overhanging rocks where there are important historic Aboriginal hand stencils.

The Drip

Water runs down the surrounding hillsides and seeps through the high rock gorges and drips into the pools below. The result, as the name suggests, is a cliff that drips into the river. It is particularly beautiful because the place where the seepage occurs is covered with weeping ferns and grasses. The track is relatively flat and easy. It is a 2.4 km return walk where you have to cross the river a number of times and dodge everything from overhangs to wombat holes and rock caves. There is rarely anyone there. It is a genuine bush paradise.

History

- * Cassilis began life as a private village named Dalkeith in the 1830s. The property had been granted to Donald McIntyre in 1834.
- * The Court House was built in 1859.
- * In 1861 Cassilis had a population of 70-80 people.
- * It was gazetted as a town and named Cassilis in 1869.
- * The Royal Hotel was built in 1869.
- * In the 1890s Jimmy Governor worked as a police tracker at Cassilis just prior to taking up a job at Breelong where he infamously went on a killing spree which resulted in the deaths of twelve people. Governor lived behind the police station when he worked in the town.
- * In 1895 the first edition of the Merriwa and Cassilis Standard was published.
- * St Columba's Anglican Church was built in 1899 and consecrated in 1900.

WORD OF THE WEEK: BRUITER: Someone who spreads news or rumours

IDIOM OF THE WEEK: “The nail that sticks up will be hammered down.” - The most commonly-known idiom outside of Japan is probably this one, which means that by standing out, you invite criticism.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: “Let's not be narrow, nasty, and negative.” - T. S. Eliot

ANOTHER VIEW: "It is better to fail in originality than to succeed in imitation." - Herman Melville

A NOVEL NOTE: “Tall as the sea-kings of old, he stood above all that were near ancient of days he seemed and yet in the flower of manhood; and wisdom sat upon his brow, and strength and healing were in his hands, and a light was about him. And then Faramir cried: “Behold the King!” – The Lord of the Rings by J. R. R. Tolkien

DID YOU KNOW: We experience Schadenfreude (pleasure at another person’s distress) by the age of four, according to a study from 2013. That sense is heightened if the child perceives that the person deserves the distress. A more recent study found that, by age six, children will pay to watch an antisocial puppet being hit, rather than spending the money on stickers.

DID YOU ALSO KNOW: A diamond is a chunk of coal that did well under pressure.

FUN FACT: Flamingos are pink because of their diet! Flamingos have their distinctive colour due to the chemical carotenoids – one in particular called canthaxanthin – which is found in stuff like algae and prawns. Baby flamingos are white!

SHE SAID IT: "Real integrity is doing the right thing, knowing that nobody's going to know whether you did it or not." - Oprah Winfrey

HE SAID IT: “Life's most persistent and urgent question is, ""What are you doing for others?" - Martin Luther King, Jr.

SHE ALSO SAID IT: “If you don't like the road you're walking, start paving another one.” - Dolly Parton

HE ALSO SAID IT: “The two most important days in your life are the day you are born and the day you find out why.” - Mark Twain

JOKE OF THE WEEK. It's a regular day at the hospital when a blonde woman comes into the burn ward with both of her ears burnt.

The doctor in charge had never seen an injury quite like it. "How did you get both sides burnt like that?" He asked her.

She says, "well... when I was ironing my work suit the phone rang and I mistakenly picked up the iron instead of the phone."

"Well, that explains one ear," said the doctor, his eyebrows raised as high as they can get, "but what about the other ear??"

"Well, I had to call an ambulance, didn't I?"

Riddle: Bellows

Doris, "There's nothing better than a good friend who makes you laugh"

Yes, Mabel. Unless it's a good friend who makes you laugh while sharing her wine.

OLDER AUSTRALIANS ENCOURAGED TO ROLL BACK THE CLOCK

Lane Cove Bowling and Recreation Club is taking a step towards curbing low physical activity rates among older Australians by encouraging them to "roll back the clock" through lawn bowls.

Roll Back the Clock is a Bowls Australia initiative, in partnership with Sport Australia, that aims to boost physical activity rates among Australians aged 65 and over through bowls, light exercise and education.

Presently, as little as 25-percent of Australians over-65 meet the Department of Health's physical activity guidelines of 30 minutes of activity per day.

Health-related reasons, including physical and mental health, are the main barriers for older Australians participating in sport or physical activities and bowls is seen as a low-impact, socially-inclusive activity that can be enjoyed by individuals of all ages.

Roll Back The Clock programs incorporate a two-part activity lasting 30 minutes each, targeting both the body and mind through bowls, functional training, fitness and wellness education, and socialisation.

Sessions are adapted for individuals, with benefits ranging from enabling participants to perform activities of daily life more easily, to withstanding injuries and providing a sense of accomplishment and achievement.

In addition to the physical health benefits, engaging in physical activity and group sports for older Australians provides increasingly important opportunities for socialisation, peer-support, and conversation that reduces the possibility for loneliness related physical and mental illnesses.

Roll Back The Clock will be staged regularly at Lane Cove Bowling and Recreation Club, over 8 weeks, commencing 18 July 2023. Cost: $80

🕒 The program will run from 2:00pm – 3:00pm on Tuesdays and combines exercise, wellness education, socialisation and little bit of bowls.

For further information please Telephone 9420 5793 or register through Bowlslink.
