EDITION 333 – TUESDAY, 6 SEPTEMBER 2022

LANE COVE'S PENNANT HOPES STILL ALIVE

By BULLIVER (Guest Columnist)

The Lane Cove Match committee made the correct decision mid-morning on Saturday calling game on to Warrawee signalling Lane Cove's intention to get into them at Lane Cove that afternoon, irrespective of the poor weather conditions.

Intermittent rain did occur during play but players battled on!

After 8 ends the leaderboard showed 20 to 14 in Lane Cove's favour - no letting up from either side.

Fortunately for Lane Cove, John Lloyd, Mal Knight, Julian Barker and Rex Johnston were all "firing". They continued on their merry way to give Lane Cove the best overall score 32:11 at the end of play by all teams.

Scott Bonthron, Joe Campbell, Chris Sinclair and Andrew Gordon went to a 13:6 lead after the 13th end, only to see it whittled down to 14 all on the 19th end - a tight game. Lane Cove got the lead back on the 20th end, only to be taken by superb bowling from Warrawee's third and skip to go down by 15:16. A great game!

Rohan Marshal, Kevin Mulhall, Stuart Smith and Peter Zucconi combined like a well-oiled machine. Warrawee, in 2 ends, picked up 7 shots on the 11th end to go to a 14:8 lead. Lane Cove hit back in the next two ends with 8 points for a 16:14 lead. Scores fluctuated back and forth up to the 20th end where Kevin Mulhall played an amazing shot to be right on the jack. The Warrawee skip drove to break up head, and that he did, miraculously glancing the jack to the bleachers for 3 shots - game over 23:25.

Overall, a top effort by Lane Cove which shows we can be up there with them all.

“Heads Down” now the motto. Team harmony the secret.

Final Score: Lane Cove 70 Warrawee 52.

FUN FACT: The Siberian tiger is the largest subspecies of tiger and the world’s largest cat. An adult tiger averages 70-82 inches in head and body length, with the male being larger than the female tiger. The male averages 77 inches while the female averages 72 inches. Its long and flexible tail measures 39 inches in male and 36 inches in the female. Historically, a wild male Siberian tiger weighed 475 pounds while the female weighed 303 pounds. However, the contemporary tigers weigh an average of 389 pounds but can weigh up to 600 pounds. One specimen raised in captivity weighed an impressive 1025 pounds. The second-largest cat is the lion, followed by the jaguar, cougar, and leopard respectively.

AUSSIE DESTINATIONS – Cullen Bullen, NSW

Cullen Bullen - Village near the superb Gardens of Stone National Park.

The tiny village of Cullen Bullen, which is little more than a hotel and a few houses for people who work in the local mines and the power stations, is located on the main road from Sydney to Mudgee. The central appeal of the town lies in the particularly beautiful Wongan Valley and Gardens of Stone National Park, both of which are accessible by 4WD and lie to the east of the town.

Location

Cullen Bullen is located on the Mudgee Road, via the Great Western Highway, 166 km north-west of Sydney and 29 km north of Lithgow.

Origin of Name

The first land grant was taken up by Robert Dulhunty who was on good terms with the Wiradjuri Aborigines and chose 'Cullen Bullen' which are Wiradjuri words which are supposed to mean 'lyre bird'.

Population and Elevation.

Cullen Bullen had a population of 279 according to the 2016 census and the town is 879 metres above sea level.

Gardens of Stone National Park

The Gardens of Stone National Park is an inaccessible, but spectacular park, which is 177 km from Sydney via the Great Western and Castlereagh Highways. Access to the park is via a 4WD road at Ben Bullen which is signposted 'Gardens of Stone National Park'. It leads through to the Wolgan Valley Road which heads north-east from Lidsdale (on the Castlereagh Highway) to the historic mining settlement at Newnes.

Quite unlike the rest of the Blue Mountains (it is at the very edge of the mountains) the Gardens of Stone National Park is a very beautiful wilderness area of limestone outcrops, precipitous sandstone cliffs, pagoda-like rock formations and a diversity of fauna and flora. The area is ideal for bushwalking, particularly in the MacLeans Pass area and around Donkey Pass, although there are no marked trails or facilities. You can walk to Pantoneys Crown from Baal Bone Gap.

Of particular interest to 4WD enthusiasts is the Ben Bullen Trail which, as the National Parks site notes, "turns Gardens of Stone National Park into a spectacular adventure for driving enthusiasts. Suitable for high clearance and well-equipped 4WDing, the trail snakes along the Great Dividing Range, through Ben Bullen State Forest, and into the park. The 4WD trail passes steep sandstone cliffs along the way, with scenic views over the Wolgan and Capertee valleys."

1991 - CULLEN BULLEN RACEWAY

Cullen Bullen Raceway was built by the members of the Portland and Districts Motorsports Club, through converting the old disused showgrounds at Cullen Bullen into a speedway complex. Like many other rural club's local business houses donated the use of trucks, graders and other equipment so the project would continue. The speedway opened in 1991.

The Portland club was quite a small club when the project started, but soon it grew in size enabling the club to channel its general funds back into the venue.

The race track is 400 metres in length and the surface is listed as granite.

History

- * The first European in the district was James Blackman who surveyed a roadway from Wallerawang to Mudgee in 1821.
- * The explorer, William Lawson, was in the area by 1822.
- * Allan Cunningham, the well-known explorer, investigated the flora and fauna of the area in 1822-23.
- * The first land grant was taken up by Robert Dulhunty who built a homestead and began grazing sheep and cattle. Dulhunty also took up the first grant at what is now Ben Bullen north of Cullen Bullen.
- * By the late 1840s the road to Mudgee had improved as a result of the discovery of gold at Hill End and Sofala.
- * The village of Cullen Bullen probably started as one of a number of stopping places on the road to the goldfields.
- * In 1861 a post office was opened at Cullen Bullen. Thomas Loneragan married the postmistress (Margaret Hart) and the business moved over the road into Loneragan's house, where it stayed until 1914. It was also a store and provided meals and accommodation for passengers on the Cobb & Co coach service.
- * A school was established in 1875.
- * The railway line to Mudgee made the area's coal commercially viable and the first coal mine opened in 1880.

- * The railway was extended to Capertee in 1882. It ran to the west of Cullen Bullen.
- * The Cullen Bullen Coal and Coke Company began operations in 1885.
- * A railway siding was constructed for the Coal and Coke company in 1889.
- * A hotel was built in 1889 on the Mudgee Road.
- * The local school was moved to its current site in 1895.
- * In 1899 the Great Western Mine began operations at Tyldesley, just west of the village.
- * The Invincible Mine opened around 1900. It was employing 200 men by 1905.
- * The Renown Colliery opened in the early 1920s.
- * The Great Depression of the 1930s saw extensive lay-offs and industrial unrest. At this time the population of the town was around 1000.
- * Three new open-cut mines were established in the boom years immediately after World War II.
- * Continuous mining was introduced in the 1950s. Local mines found it hard to compete and they began to close from 1956.
- * Today the mines and the Mount Piper Power Station still operate and provide work.

JOKE OF THE WEEK. Shingles!

Kelvin inherited a 200-acre farm from his father. He worked very hard for several years, but just could not earn enough to provide for his family. So, he started working in town driving a delivery truck part-time to provide additional off-farm income.

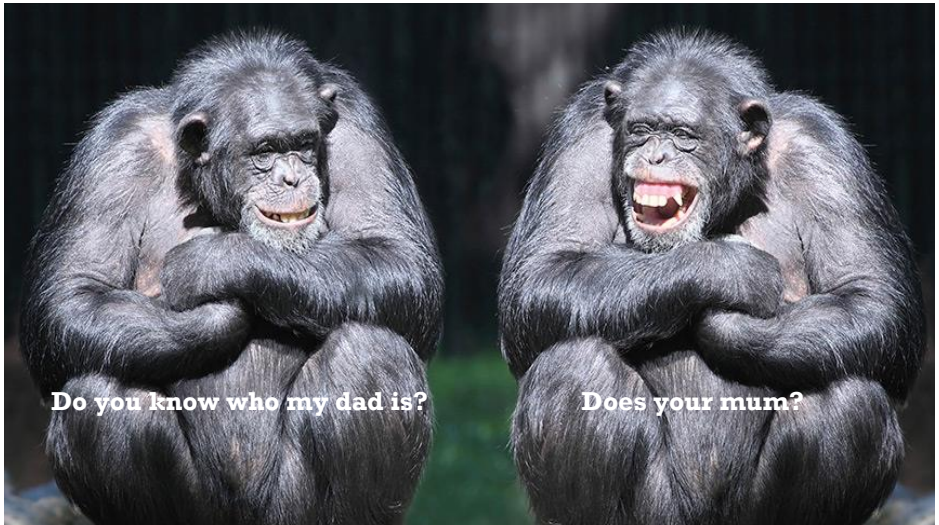

People who have spent much time in a doctor's office can appreciate what happened to Kelvin one day. It seems that more and more that doctors are running their practices like an assembly line. Kelvin walked into a doctor's office and the receptionist asked him what he had. Kelvin said: "Shingles." So, she wrote down his name, address, medical insurance number and told him to have a seat.

Fifteen minutes later a nurse's aide came out and asked Kelvin what he had. Kelvin said, "Shingles." So, she wrote down his height, weight, a complete medical history and told Kelvin to wait in the examining room. A half hour later a nurse came in and asked Kelvin what he had. Kelvin said, "Shingles." So, the nurse gave Kelvin a blood test, a blood pressure test, an electrocardiogram, and told Kelvin to take off all his clothes and wait for the doctor.

An hour later the doctor came in and found Kelvin sitting patiently in the nude and asked Kelvin what he had. Kelvin said, "Shingles." The doctor asked, "Where?" Kelvin said, "Outside on the truck. Where do you want me to unload 'em?"

Enjoying a life of ease in the court of Egypt's pharaoh, Moses (Charlton Heston) discovers his Hebrew heritage and, later, God's expectations of him. He dedicates himself to liberating his people from captivity and -- with the aid of plagues and divine intervention -- manages to lead them out of Egypt and across the Red Sea. A greater challenge comes in the form of the golden calf idol, however, and it takes an unforgettable visitation by God on Mount Sinai for Moses' mission to prevail.

Nefretiri: Are you afraid of Moses?

Rameses: Yes, because now he holds Ethiopia in his left hand, Goshen in right, and you, my Pharaoh, are in-between them.

Sethi: Do you imply that he would raise the slaves against me? I've been his father. Jannes: Ambition knows no father."

Director: Cecil B. DeMille

Starring: Charlton Heston (Moses (and the voice of God at the Burning Bush)) Yul Brynner (Rameses II) Anne Baxter (Nefretiri) Edward G. Robinson (Dathan) Yvonne De Carlo (Sephora) Debra Paget (Lilia) John Derek (Joshua)
